13. What do you expect from this project? 33 responses

Nothing

I look forward to seeing children from other countries and seeing how the holidays are with them and other things

I want to meet new people.

To meet new people.

I want to meet new people

i expect to learn something new like heritage ,culture ,language ,traditions.

I expect to learn something new about some other countries, heratage,nationalities,and most important of all to make a great expiriance.

I expect that all of us have our nationality and culture and that's important for our country.

From this project i expect to learn something new about other countries, their cultures and heriatige.

Learn thing about the cultural differences.

I expect from this projet new friends.

I expect adventure

Experience

Travelling

travels

Get a new experience, learn new countries and their traditions, travel opportunities

I received new knowledge and interesting facts about the worldio

People making new friends, travelling across the globe or taking interest in other cultures.

Journey

Have more friends from Europe

I want to see the culture, language and system of other countries.

I want to speak English better.

I love learning cultures so,I want to learn more cultures

First, I want to develop my English. Because I love English so much and if I learn it well, it will be good for my future. But the important thing is not that. I want to learn other cultures and their traditional things.

Because in this world, we're all living together. For that we should know each other. If we don't, we should search and travel. And yes, I don't know so much thing about Romania, Lithuania, Serbia or North Macedonia. But I'm searching and if I win the exam and have a chance for going abroad, I want thic chance and I will get it.

i expect from this protect I will learn important things

I want to learn another countries cultural heritage

Get to know each other better ♡

I expect a good travel,New friends and to learn different cultures.

I expect good results.

From this project, I expect to meet new friends and learn new cultures and traditions.

Learning different cultures and understanding them better

Waiting for World Peace
